

Information Resources

Refugee.Info

On the Refugee.Info website, you can find info on topics such as the asylum process, legal rights, healthcare, education, work and many more, including services available in Greece by organizations that offer assistance and support. The goal is to address the information gap that often exists for refugees, provide support, help people access services, and exercise their rights.

On the Refugee.Info website, you can find:

- Information in English, Arabic, Urdu, French, Farsi, Somali and Ukrainian.
- Information that is Accurate | Up-to-date | Time sensitive | Useful

Visit the Refugee.Info website at <https://greece.refugee.info/>

How to use the site

Information: Click “INFORMATION” on the menu to see a complete list of topics.

Services: Click the word “SERVICES” to see all categories of public and NGO services in your area in Greece.

Guides for Asylum-Seekers & Refugees

These two Guides list service providers for asylum seekers and refugees staying respectively in Athens and Thessaloniki, and are the product of a cooperation between UNHCR, Refugee.Info and, for Athens, ACCMR. The organizations listed in this guide offer free assistance. Services include medical care, social counselling, psychological support, care and hygiene services, legal aid, meals, shelter, material aid, education, services for people living with HIV/AIDS, as well as services for people discriminated against due to their gender identity/expression and/or sexual preference.
